

Financial Literacy Resources

to support BC K-9 Mathematics Curriculum Framework

Children's Picture Books

Bunny Money (Max and Ruby) by Rosemary Wells

Alexander, Who Used to Be Rich Last Sunday by Judith Viorst

Jenny Found a Penny by Trudy Harris

Arthur's Funny Money by Lillian Hoban

Once Upon a Dime by Nancy Kelly Allen

Canadian Coins by Sabrina Crewe

One Hen: How One Small Loan Can Make a Big Difference by Katie Smith Milway

Follow Your Money: Who Gets It? Who Spends It? Where Does It Go? by Kevin Sylvester and Michael Hlinka

Teacher Resources

Why Can't I Have Everything? By Jane Crawford (mathsolutions.com)

On The Money: Activities to Build Financial Literacy Grades 6-8 by Jennifer M. Bay-Williams, Sarah B. Bush, Susan A. Peters, and Maggie B. McGatha (nctm.org)

On The Money: High School Mathematics Activities to Build Financial Literacy by Susan A. Peters, Jennifer M. Bay-Williams, and Sherri L. Martinie (nctm.org)

Credit Counselling Society/Money Coach

Comprehensive lesson plans for grades 4-7 available as a pdf document in both English and French on the mymoneycoach.ca website. The organization will provide free pro-d sessions for teachers as well as in-service the resource, "Make it Count", published by the Manitoba Securities Commission. A pilot project in Surrey intermediate classrooms last year led to the development of assessment questions and a rubric to accompany the lessons, available on the following website.

<http://www.mymoneycoach.ca/for-teachers/resources-lesson-plans-financial-literacy.htm>
!

Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada

Financial Literacy workshops designed for Grade 4&5, 7&8 and 10&11. Detailed overviews and lessons plans available online (click on community connect).

<http://www.financialdecisionsmatter.ca>

Financial Consumer Agency of Canada

The City: 11 module learning program on financial literacy for youth (high school is target age group)

PDF download (go to Financial Literacy tab and then to Resources and Educational Programs link)

<http://ltpaystoknow.gc.ca>

CanSave

Lesson Plans for Early Primary and Late Primary grades. Developed by Okanagan College and Valley First Credit Union

www.cansaveoc.ca

Canadian Foundation for Economic Education

Third Wednesday in April is "Talk to Your Kids about Money" day, targeting grade 7 students at home and at school

When you register you are able to download an extensive teachers' guide and resources for lessons across curriculum areas

<http://talkwithourkidsaboutmoney.com/school-program/#login>

Building Futures in Manitoba (a subgroup of CFEE)

Financial literacy lessons available for Grades 4-6, 7-8 and 9-10 that connect to curriculum outcomes

<http://buildingfuturesinmanitoba.com/>

Canadian Bankers Association

Your Money program designed for students in grades 10-12

<http://www.yourmoney.cba.ca/students/>

British Columbia Securities Commission

Results from a national study of financial literacy in youth; focusing on high school graduates and knowledge acquired in a personal finance course (ie. Planning 10)

http://www.bcsc.bc.ca/uploadedFiles/news/publications/National_Youth_Survey_Full_Report-25-10-11.pdf

Math Forum Financial Education problems of the week archive (K-12)

<http://mathforum.org/pow/financialed/>

Math Forum Finance Page

<http://mathforum.org/fe/finance-topics/>

Examples of Financial Literacy initiatives in US schools:

<http://www.educationdive.com/news/tips-tricks-and-solutions-for-teaching-financial-literacy/418117/>

Creating a Classroom Economy (all grades)

<http://www.myclassroomeconomy.org/>

Talk With Our Kids About Monday Day

Richmond School District April 20 2016

<http://blogs.sd38.bc.ca/sd38mathandscience/2016/04/26/talk-with-our-kids-about-money-day-2016/>